

Ready Aye Ready The Canadian Navy turns 100

On May 4, 2010 the Royal Canadian Navy celebrated its 100th anniversary. From its humble beginnings to its high of over 400 ships during the Second World War to the present fleet of 42 and 9000 personnel, the ships of the Canadian Navy and the men and women who have served in them have done so with distinction. Through its first 100 years the Royal Canadian Navy and Maritime Command has served in both World Wars, Korea and many peacekeeping and NATO operations throughout the world.
